

Students have missed a lot of school this year. Andrews Library has a great way to make up for lost lessons and earn up to $30 over Spring Break!

CHR is offering their exciting program all about making smart choices with your body and your life. Designed for students between 11 and 13, this all-day class at the library is the same curriculum that is used in school.

Lunch and snacks are provided, and all attendees receive a $20 gift card. The first three to arrive, get $10 more!
